

MAIL

YDS is not able to assume responsibility for receiving or sending personal mail and packages. All members of the community should use their home address (their apartment address if living on campus) for all personal mail and package deliveries.