MASTER'S PROGRAM (M.S.N.)

Tuition for students in the full-time M.S.N. program in 2024–2025 is $49,998 (divided evenly between the fall and spring terms). Students entering the GEPN program pay an additional one-time summer-term tuition of $19,833.

Tuition for students in the part-time M.S.N. program in 2024–2025 is $33,188 (divided evenly between the fall and spring terms).

In addition, new students in 2024–2025 pay an equipment and technology fee of $2,170, continuing students pay an equipment and technology fee of $745, and both new and continuing students pay a lab fee of $493, as well as a student activity fee of $129, all due in the fall term.

Tuition for students in the Part-time Online M.S.N. program in 2024–2025 is $2,001 per credit, and fees are assessed at $77 per credit.

Concentration Tuition

Students who are accepted into the diabetes, gender and sexuality health justice, and oncology concentrations will pay an additional fee, split over two or three terms depending on when the concentration begins. Students who begin a concentration will pay an additional $10,073 (of which $5,037 will be due per term over two terms, or $3,358 due over three terms).

If, at the end of the first term, a student elects to drop a concentration, the student will not need to pay the next term's concentration fee, but the fee will not be refunded.

DOCTOR OF NURSING PRACTICE PROGRAMS (D.N.P.)

Tuition for students in the part-time D.N.P. programs in 2024–2025 is $33,188 (divided evenly between the fall and spring terms).

In addition, students pay an equipment and technology fee of $745 and a student activities fee of $129, both due in the fall term.

POST-MASTER'S CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

The Post-Master's Certificate Program and non-matriculated part-time study are available at $2,001 per credit. Applicable fees, such as the equipment and technology fee of $2,170, the student activity fee of $129 and the Lab fee of $493 are also assessed in the fall term.

ADDITIONAL FEES

Required Fees

The university requires hospitalization insurance for all students. Students will be billed $3,112 in 2024–2025 for single-student hospitalization/specialty coverage with Yale

Health (see Health Services in the chapter Yale University Resources and Services). This fee may be waived with proof of alternative coverage for each year of enrollment.

Students are also responsible for the cost of equipment, uniforms, books, photocopying, transportation to and from clinical sites, and on-site parking, if needed.

Other Fees

Service fees are charged for late registration, course schedule changes after the add/drop period, Internet connectivity from a Yale residence hall, late return of library materials, and the like.
